ChatGPT Enterprise Plugins

Overview of ChatGPT Enterprise Plugins and how to connect to them

Monday July 20, IT released MS Plugins for ChatGPT that will enable the UCSF community to access connected content in ChatGPT:

- Microsoft Outlook Email
- Microsoft Outlook Calendar
- Microsoft Teams

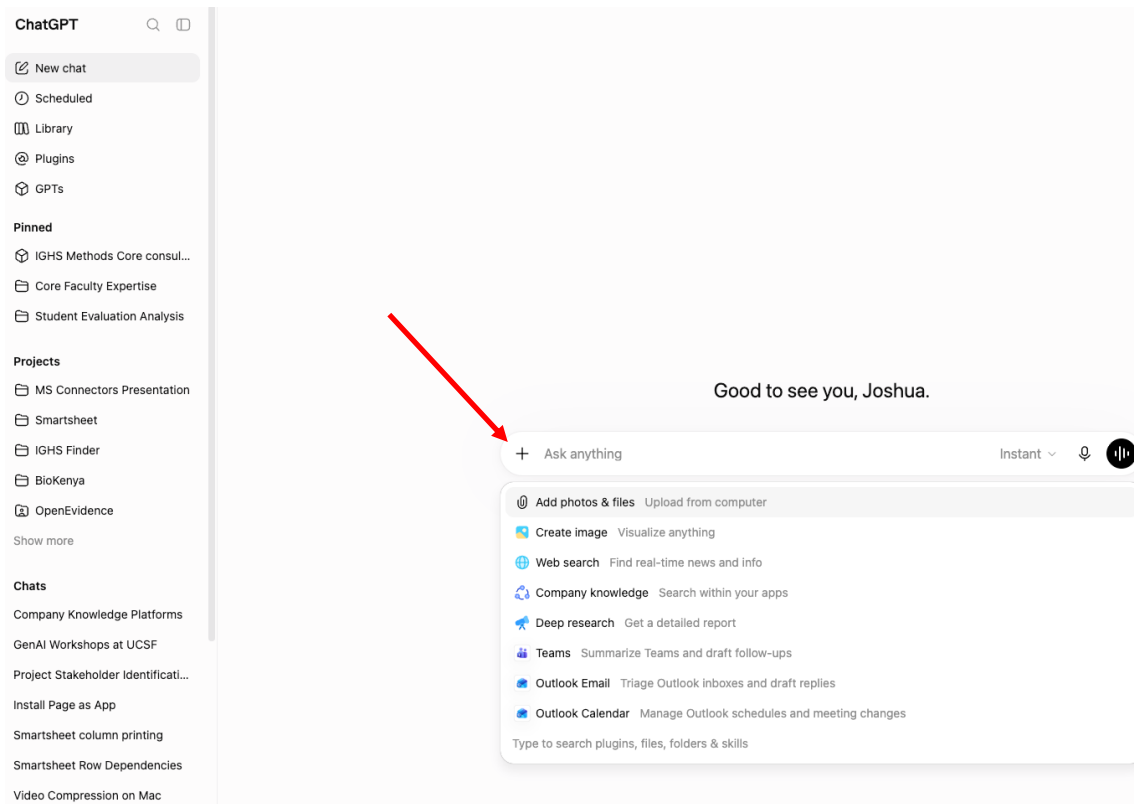

Note: MS Office cannot access ChatGPT

Basic help available online here: <https://ai.ucsf.edu/chatgpt-enterprise-plugins>

What Plugins for Outlook/Teams can do

- Read email
- Summarize email threads
- Draft email replies
- Search calendar
- Find meeting availability
- Review meeting schedules
- Search Teams conversations
- Summarize Teams discussions
- Draft Teams responses

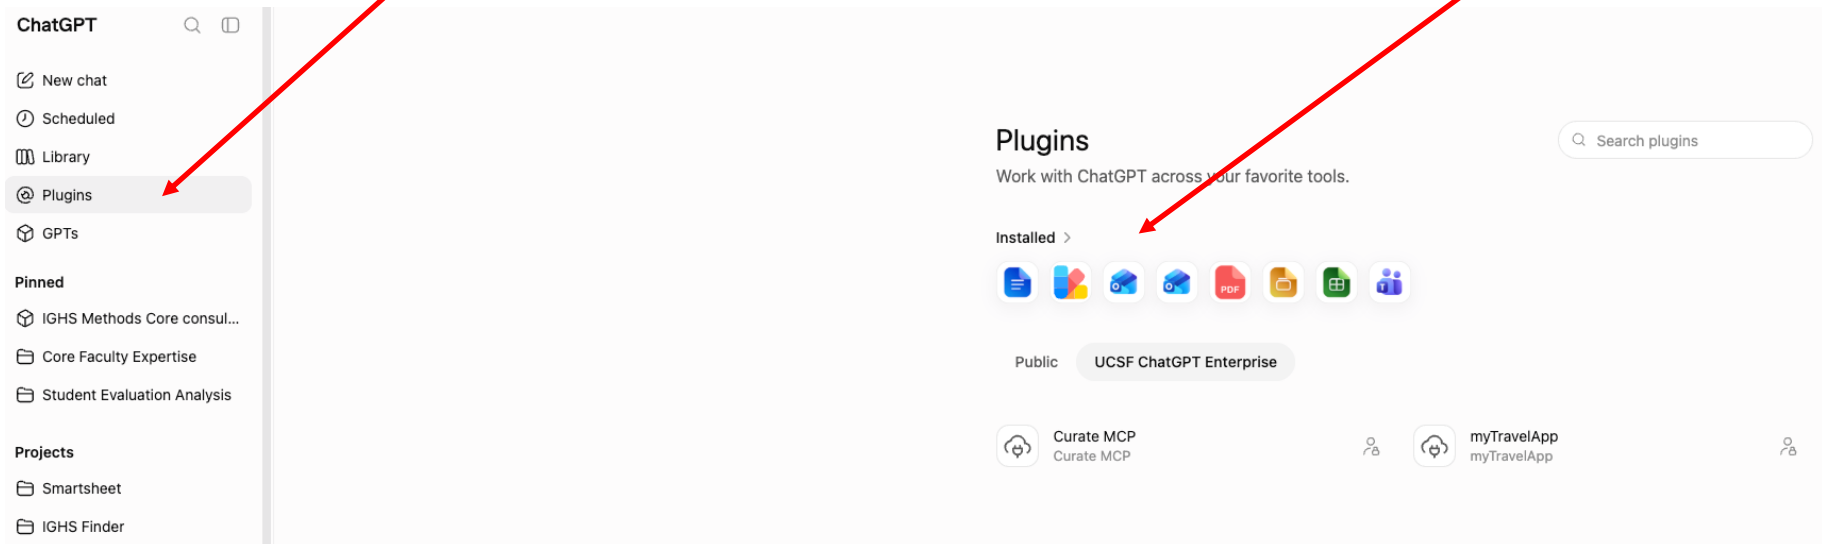

Access ChatGPT Plugins from Your Pulldown

Rate Limits

If you receive the error, it does not indicate a platform issue or outage. It means your account has reached its rate limit. Once your rate limit resets, you can try again.

Plugins can consume credits - viewing credit usage

- Using Plugins may consume credits, particularly when they are used to answer complex questions or perform more advanced tasks.
- To view your usage, visit the Credits Usage Dashboard
- To request credits, fill out the ChatGPT Enterprise Request Credits
- IGHS Credits Decision Tree on IGHS Box
- Submit suggestions for Plugins and Integrations to the AI Tiger Team: enterpriseai@ucsf.edu
